

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

Name of the programme-Undergraduate (UG)

SOCIOLOGY

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

Sociology seeks to understand all aspects of human social behavior, including the behavior of individuals as well as the social dynamics of small groups, large organizations, communities, institutions, and entire societies. Sociologists are typically motivated both by the desire to better understand the principles of social life and by the conviction that understanding these principles may aid in the formulation of enlightened and effective social policy. Sociology provides an intellectual background for students considering careers in the professions or business. An Honors Graduate student of Sociology should be able to develop:

1. Critical Thinking: The programme seeks to develop in students the sociological knowledge and skills that will enable them to think critically and imaginatively about society and social issues.
2. Sociological Understanding: The ability to demonstrate sociological understandings of phenomena, for example, how individual biographies are shaped by social structures, social institutions, cultural practices, and multiple axes of difference and inequality.
3. Written and Oral Communication: The ability to formulate effective and convincing written and oral arguments.
4. Better understanding of real life situation: The ability to apply sociological concepts and theories to the real world and ultimately their everyday lives.
5. Analytical thinking: Field survey and preparation of dissertation paper is an inseparable part of Sociology Hons Programme. Students have to collect primary data for census as well as his/her research topic and analyze the data to draw conclusions. So, qualitative and quantitative analytical skills are enhanced.
6. Observation power: a sensible observation power is necessary to identify the research problems in field study. So a perception about human society slowly grows up.
7. Communication skills and Social interaction power: Students of Sociology stream have to work beyond the class room boundary at the time of field study activities. As a result good communication skill develops while interacting with local people.
8. Ethical and Social Responsibility: Students have to learn about institutions, folkways, mores, culture, social control, social inequality, population composition, population policy, society and culture of India. All these help to instill among the students of Sociology a sense of ethical and social responsibility.
9. Professional and Career Opportunities: Students will have the opportunity to join professional careers in Sociology and allied fields. Sociology provides an intellectual background for students considering careers in business, social services, public policy,
