

Practice-I

1. Dinabandhu Sahoo Smruti Samman to an eminent Personality.
2. To honour the successful persons for their achievement in their field and also inspire others in the same discipline.
3. On the foundation day of the college, the institution awards Dinabandhu Sahoo Smruti Samman, named after the Chief archived of the College, to an eminent personality of the State belonging to any discipline such as academic, literary, art and culture, sports, social services etc. with a cash award of Rs. 20,000/- & a citation.
4. The Institution honoured the veteran Olympian sprint runner Ms. Anuradha Biswal on 12th Feb-2021, the foundation day of the college.
5. Since the college usually select the budding talents of their respective fields for such award, it engages in brainstorming quite for some time to reach the right person. The college diverts the amount of funds required from its development fund.

Practice-2

1. Felicitating the Best Graduates of the college.
2. To recognize the achievement of the best talents among the students in the annual examinations.
3. Every year on the occasion of the foundation day of the college, the institution felicitates the toppers of each department. Sometimes we felicitate students after completions of their study. Hence it becomes difficult for us to know their whereabouts. Very often we take help from their permanent address.
4. On 12th February 2021, on the occasion of the foundation day the college, the institution felicitated 23 students who topped in the final examinations. This is unique practice as it creates a sense of motivation and encouragement for others.
5. Sometimes it is difficult to make our message to reach the students. The amount of funds required for this is diverted from the development fund of the college.

Practice-3

1. Extramural Lecturers
2. To expose the students & faculty to a variety of topics & issues beyond the regular curriculum.
3. In every academic year each department of the college conducts two extramural lectures on regular basis to provide a platform for students to interact /exchange ideas with resource purposes from different fields.
4. This year all the departments have conducted two extramural lectures each by inviting resource persons from different institution of repute. This is a very unique practice as it broadens the knowledge and intellectual horizon of the students.
5. Amount of fund required is diverted from the Funds of UGC grant.

Practice-4

1. Memorial talks on different Occasions
2. To broaden the intellectual horizon of the inmates of our institution on a particular topic, while remembering he departed soul in whose memory the talk is delivered..
3. Every year the institute conducts memorial talks, talks on Indian Culture and tradition for the academic & intellectual enrichment of the students.
4. The institution conducted Dr. Benudhar Pradhan memorial lecture, named after the founder Principal of the college.
5. When almost everybody was panic in the backdrop of pandemic COVID-19. This was a tough business for our college. The amount of fund required for the lecture was diverted from the development fund of the college.

Practice-5

1. Sheltering Maroon/affected people during calamities.
2. Whenever there is a calamity like COVID-19 or any natural calamity such as flood and cyclone this institution is committed to shelter the affected or marron people under its roof..
3. During the last COVID-19 pandemic the whole country come to a halt. The infrastructure of the institution including its classroom, hostels premises were utilized for hospitalizing the patients, vaccinating the people and accommodating the health staff within its campus.

4. Very few colleges in the district could afford such facilities to the society at the time of need and even if other institution could follow our example but no one can match our size and amount of contribution we did.
5. Though this practice brings a great relief to the society but it possesses challenges to the institutions. When such occupation continues for longer period of time, the normal academic activities of the college.

Practice-6

1. Contribution of one day salary by the teaching & non-teaching staff of the college to the next of the kin of the deceased employees of the college.
2. To express the solidarity of the teachers & employees of the college with the family of the deceased & also to financially support them.
3. The Context- Two of our teachers named Dr. Mayaprasan Tripathy, Reader in Botany and Mr. Nihar Prasad Nayak, Lecturer in Political Science, passed away while on job. This incidence was untimely and that was quite challenging for us to stand by their families.
4. The institute contributed Rs.3,01,550/- to the family of late Mr Nihar Prasad Nayak.
5. The collection is made from the salary of the employees which is paid at the end of the month and the deduction was made only after that.

Practice-7

1. Felicitating the Superannuated incumbents of the college.
2. To honour the superannuated teachers and employees for their significant contribution and services to this college and also to express in token of love.
3. Every year on the foundation day of the college i.e., 12th February the institution felicitates the teachers & employees who retired from their services from the college and also those who retired from other colleges if they started their professional career from the institution as well.
4. The institution felicitated teaching and non-teaching employees of the college on the foundation day. This is a unique practice because the institution recognises and appreciation the contribution such employees towards the college.

5. It is challenging to find out teachers & employees who retired from other institutions. Amount Funds required for this practice is diverted from the development fund of the college.
